Explanation

An IRS Form 8868, Extension to File Form 990, was mailed on Nov 5, 2017. The organization has undergone major changes this last six months and is experiencing tremendous growth and modernization which led to the delay in filing a return. We have a new General Manager, as well as a new board president, board members and accountant changes. Our residents have increased from an average of around 20 residents to 37 today. The organization has transitioned to modern practices under the new leadership, and has transformed their accounting procedures to match the new Accounting Standards for Nonprofits that went into effect Jan 1, 2018. The organization will file a short period from July 2017-Dec 2017 and will begin calendar year accounting under the new standards effective Jan 1, 2018. Most likely the organization will be required to file an IRS Form 990 (versus 990-EZ) in 2018 and are prepared to do so. The board also approved to change the name of the organization and will operate under Christian New Creations, Inc in 2018. Required documentation to change the name will be filed with the next returns.
